

Lost and Found

Students should turn in found articles to the office. If you have lost any belongings, check at the school office at lunch or after school.

Students are responsible for ensuring their own locker is properly locked and their combination is not shared. Valuables should be left at home.